

Farewell Reception For Dr. Spalding

Presented Fine Edition of Dickens' Works by State Hospital Employees—Goes to Westboro Today.

DR. H. O. SPALDING.

Wednesday evening, dancing was enjoyed during the evening to music furnished by Gulliver's orchestra. During the evening those who had not previously expressed themselves took occasion to extend to Dr. Spalding their best wishes for his future, and at the same time expressing their sincere regret at his departure from the hospital, with which he had been connected from the opening.

In behalf of the employees, John Duggan presented Dr. Spalding a fine edition of Dickens' works as a token of their esteem and respect. He referred to the regret of the employees at his departure. Dr. Spalding responded in well chosen words and referred to the pleasant relations that had existed at the institution during his seven and a half years. At the conclusion of the reception refreshments were served.

Dr. Spalding leaves today and will take up his duties at the Westboro, Mass., state hospital on Saturday as assistant superintendent. This institution is much larger than the local one and there are a number of advantages in securing the change.

The successor of Dr. Spalding at the local institution has not been determined, but will be at the next meeting of the trustees, when it is believed that a member of the present staff will be named to fill the position under Supt. Henry M. Pollock. Dr. Spalding has been a faithful and courteous official whose efficiency is well known, and his leaving is much regretted by his many friends here.

Tuesday evening at the Wauregan house several of his intimate friends gave him a farewell dinner, covers being laid for six in one of the private dining rooms.

NATIONAL GATHERING OF ELKS AT PORTLAND.

Big Time Planned for a Week in the Early Part of July.

Norwich lodge of Elks, No. 429, has received the following letter out by Portland lodge, No. 142, of Oregon, which announces the rich programme arranged for the 4th grand lodge reunion of the order to be held in that city July 5 to 12. Typographic and artistic, the 24-page folder is a gem, while the wonders to be seen within it will attract the rich and varied attractions which will crowd the time full of entertainment indicate that the Portland Elks propose to outdo anything that has been attempted for any other reunion.

Briefly, the round of pleasure prepared is as follows: Monday, July 5, meeting trains with uniformed band of Elks and brass band in evening formal reception at the armory; July 9, over 1,000 automobiles at disposal of Elks for trips around city; morning and afternoon trips on chartered river steamers; at night the grand electrical parade; July 10, the whole day and evening at "The Oaks," the Coney Island of the Pacific coast, barbecue, fireworks, and everything absolutely free to Elks; Thursday, immense parade of 2,000 Elks with 100 brass bands and thousands of dollars in prizes; in the evening a trip to Capitol Crest, the Switzerland of America; Friday, naval parade in the morning; grand ball in the evening; Saturday, an open day for general entertainment.

Unusual features are outlined in the folder, and the Oregon Elks promise to dispense hospitality with a lavish hand in every way to gratify their visitors.

ASSESSORS HEARD BY TAX COMMISSIONER.

Valuation of City Property and Revaluation Were Interesting Topics.

At a recent meeting of boards of assessors with the state tax commissioner in Hartford there were several different phases of the tax question discussed.

Revolutions of Property.

Henry L. Vibberts of Manchester spoke on frequent revolutions and changes in the valuation of property in the town was necessary. A committee was appointed to revalue the property. The committee reported a valuation on a 20 per cent basis. As a result, the rate of taxation was reduced from 15 to 12 mills. Manchester is composed of number of villages. It was in South Manchester that the town was being built up more rapidly than in any other part. The town is under a special charter, which provides a sort of autonomy. The selectmen have consolidated the old village. The assessors told the selectmen there should be some provision for a reassessment.

On this suggestion it was provided that there should be a reassessment every five years. He did not think the board of assessors should shrink their duty in making the town meeting to appoint a special committee to make a reassessment. When the reassessment was begun it appeared a bigger job than it was first thought it would be. The assessors were determined to do the work thoroughly. The taxpayers showed a willingness to give information. They found some people who did not have as much land as the tax had shown, and others who had more. In making the assessment they double valuations, and even more than that, in some instances. The manufacturing part of Manchester is most of the plant of Chrysler Bros. They were exceptionally fair to the assessors. They gave the assessors the amount of insurance and handed in a list based on its insurance. The Chrysler Bros. carry their insurance on a basis of 100 per cent. The board of relief accepted the figures of the company. The information given by the company was of great assistance to the assessors. No board could have secured the information that was voluntarily given by Chrysler Bros. He commended the work of the board of relief.

Valuation of City Property.

Harry Walsh of Middletown spoke on valuation of City Land and Buildings. Mr. Walsh said that two years ago the law necessitated the separation of land from dwellings. The assessors blocked out the city into zones and placed a value on the land per front foot. This method of valuation helped them arrive at an ultimate valuation. The insurance maps were not accurate because they gave only what was shown on the map. The assessors had not sufficient time to assess the buildings. A town meeting was called to readjust the assessment by giving the tax commissioner power to appoint additional assessors to act with the old board. He (Mr. Walsh) was at first opposed to the appointment of the additional assessors. He was not opposed to them on principle, but he was opposed to them on the ground that they would be a hindrance to the work. He was not opposed to them on the ground that they would be a hindrance to the work. He was not opposed to them on the ground that they would be a hindrance to the work.
